

The Vanishing Sun

Eclipse Tales from Around the World

A dozen multi-cultural eclipse folktales were researched and recorded by professional storytellers Cassandra Wye and Fran Stallings, at the request of the Lunar and Planetary Institute, in preparation for the August 21 solar eclipse. The website features 11 audio recordings of stories tales around the world and one video recording story with both captioning and an ASL interpreter.

The stories are freely available online to engage a variety of ages in educational programs.
